

CLAUDIA RAFFO

SENIOR CONSULTANT FOR INNOVATION &
ORGANIZATIONAL DESIGN

Claudia Raffo is an experienced consultant for multinational holdings from a variety of industries.

As such, Claudia has designed and developed new approaches to improve performance of executive teams and generate innovation by means of connectivity and awareness. She has customized, developed and established training programs for the development of management skills for innovation and organizational design generating innovation funnels and projects which have added value to the client's strategic planning.

As a senior executive coach, Claudia has helped top professionals develop the skills that would enable them to operate more harmoniously and more efficiently in an unfamiliar environment generating synergy with focus on results with purpose.

As an organizational consultant, Claudia has developed projects with CEO's and their direct reports to establish and collaborate along the lines of their strategic planning, new defined culture and values. Given her working background and close relationship with the business world, she is very familiar with the needs and realities of the LATAM working scene.

Claudia is Chilean but has lived and worked in the United States for several years making her fully bilingual. She has also travelled extensively throughout Europe and most countries in Central and South America. Claudia is a public speaker at conferences in Organizational Development and Coaching.

Claudia is a certified facilitator with Kaospilot - the Danish School of Business and Innovation. She finished her Master's degree on Organizational Development and Behaviour from University Diego Portales. She also holds a degree in Corporate Communication from the same university. Claudia graduated from University of Chile with a B.A. in English Linguistics in 1985.

Finally, Claudia is certified in various methodologies and has her PCC credential from ICF International.

